MEMPHIS, TENN., SUNDAY, JANUARY 10, 1869.

For the Sunday Appeal.] MAUNINA. Come sit at my size while I tell you

A beautiful story I heard In the West, of an Indian legend, A malden, a grave and a bird. The Hunter's Story. The evenings were mellowed by Autumn, The trees dropped their leaves at my lest, A. it Indian Summer had softened Each thick wooded forest retreat. Fach thick wooded forest forces.

The strong hearted cate and the poplars,
Instorted of their full vertal dress,
Stood braving the blasta of Halles,
And mocking at Nature's discress.

The dead yellow leaves, as they rustled,
Made localiness all the more drear: The wind mourued the close of the Autums, And signed that old Wonter was nesr. The woodland, afar from the cities And sea'ed to the wen of the East. Was travered alone by the Indian And hardly less civilized brest. The banks of a clear, normaring streamlet Were covered with flourishing cane, And the waters below, sweetly plaining, Making a sweet refeats, Went rollicking on to the rivers, And down them along to the main, While I conne ! over day : of rast pleasure While I conned over days of past pleasur And some reministence of pain. My thoughts, as they wandered, at mome From door ones at home, to the sky, Were drawn to mound, near a till ok, Moss-grown, in the sindows near by. A stake at each side showed that some one

A state at each side showed that some one
Had marked it for purpose unknown.
And near by the mount has laid firmly
A rigged and lichen-clad stone.
Had red men these relies adjusted,
And gone farther on to the West,
Tous leaving the place of their late;
And some our, lovever at red;
Batah! there was something approaching! I waited and watched till it neared— A maiden, a young Indian woman, One blooming in beauty, appeared.
All features she came, I solving orward,
With love's pleading eyes, to the grave. With loves pleasing cycles to the bre with her love's dearest token. To homer the rest of the Brave.

Approaching I saw that she carried A care with a chirroping tind;
And going at once to the hillock,
She stood without saying a word. While tears streamed in line; to her walstoand, er soos broke the slewco to dreat. Thus standing a moment, Maunina Looked upward and smiled through a tear, Saying: "Bruther! I come; 'its Mannina! Mannina, who sat on your knee And hissel away torios that grieved you

Before you was taken from me; Before the figure B sourcest oppressed us-Before you fell fighting their brave; Maunina, who lived you and blessed you; Maunina, who watches your grave. I send you a love-frequest meangeit goes by this bright priots. That I've reared till it clins of the glories. That walt on your warrier soul.

It will tell you that pour, 'one Mannina
Has enerland the themasks should prize; It will tell you she dreams of the spirits Tost dwel with your contilu the siles That she sam in those dromes that dear brother Who told her of glory and love; Who dared the dread Blackfoot to buttle, And fell in this desolate grove.
It bears you a cong of her pixing.

It beings you the tale of her woe; It tells you Manning would haven In death where her loved one would go. Magnina sings yet far our mother Shech was the game as of o'd, But her heart without brother is broken-Go! go, blessed bird, to his spirit, And sing of Mannina's di trans; Take love to his glarious soul;

she find from the moss covered grave, And the bird sang its pre-us of praises Pair woman, is beaming on those

She card; and as first as that little bird;

And hash all her tobs to repose, MEMPHIS, December 21, 1808.

TESTING A JEDGE. An Old Seatch Law Custom.

to the table of the court a gray-haired. accordance with the Gospel that "from manufactured in that country are unsurintelligent, mid-locking gentleman in full court dress, lack and first the choir its was Mr. George Bunds, heretefore, she hard the coordinate of the courtery was Mr. George Bunds, heretefore sheriff of Selkirk, an office which Sir Watter Seath had occapted for a quarter of sent and the world.

A Kovel'y in Photographs.

A Kovel'y in Photographs.

A Kovel'y in Photographs.

A Kovel'y in Photographs is promised on the world.

A Kovel'y in Photographs.

A Kovel'y in Photographs is promised of the churches, and one which Sir Watter Seath had occapted for a quarter of Toula, which he per of a centery. Mr. Duncias held a large official letter in his hand, which he president event has been under the character of the continuary browners. The seorm and the cordinate protection of the continuary browners are in measured as a few of the continuary browners. The seorm and the cordinate only in the dark—positionary browners are in measured as a few of the president seath and or other hand of section of the continuary browners are in measured. The image of the same are the continuary browners are in measured as a few of the continuary browners are in measured as a few of the continuary browners and the days of the continuary browners are in the conditionary browners are in measured to the president seath and or other hand over their steps of the content of the continuary browners are in the conditionary browners and the days of the world has all gone over to the content of the continuary browners are in measured by the content of the cont intelligent, mild-looking gentleman in him that bath not shall be taken away passed in the world.

monials begin. nonials begin.

The court having resumed their chairs, and a tent. SILK MANUFACTURE.

the presiding judge appointed the new judge to be taken on trial in two cases. and to report his judgment to the Inner The manufacture of silk is of com House. The judge elect accordingly paratively recent date in this country retired with Lord Kinlock, (actual name, and has but lately begun to attract much William Penny.) one of the Lords Ordi- attention of the public. Silk-worms nary, heard first a case of domicile, and were introduced into Virginia at an afterwards a mercantile case; after early day, it is true though without per which, returning with Lord Kinlock to manent success; and Louisians and the Inner House, he reported, now as Georgia raised them not many years Lord Probationer, on the cases, with after, the first export of raw silk amount which the other judges expressed entire ing to eight pounds, being sent from the satisfaction. But the ordeal was not latter State in 1734. But while cocoons finished. The new judge was then ap- were produced at the South in consider pointed to hear a case in the First Divierable quantities, for some time followsion, (or highest court,) and again duly ing, and also Connecticut, where a comreported his decision. Then all the pany was incorporated in 1778 for the judges were again summoned, by ringmaunfacture of silk, little was accoming of the bell, to reassemble, and the plished in the way of manufacturing. new judge was duly sworn in by the

Now, however, we believe there are clerk of the court. After that, the preseveral silk factories in the United States siding judge administered the oath of One of these, possibly the largest, is fidelity to the Queen, and invited him, described at length in the Protection-George Dundas, Esq., to take his sent ist for November. It is that of the on the bench under the title of "Lord Cheney Brothers, at South Manchester, Manor." Ascending the bench, the Ct., and is a model establishment. A judges, standing up to receive Lord history of the origin and progress of Manor, gave him in rotation the right silk manufacture precludes the descriphand of fellowship, and then he took his tion, from which we condense the follow-seat as Junior Lord of Session on the Therefore, to prevent unqualified per-elect should dispose of several cases, in

THE SERVICE OF SONG.

extreme left. The ceremonial, though The discovery of the uses to which rather tedious, is highly inposing. We the cocoon of the silk worm might be have described it, knowing that the applied, it is said, was made in China, numerous legal readers of the Chronicle 2700 years before the Christian era. will be glad to receive the information it or that as it may, it is a well-known fact that when the existence of the The Scotch being proverbially a very silken fabric of China became known cautious people, jealously looked after to other countries, its manufacture had | That in the dreams of starry hours bright, the men who had to sit in judgment on attained a degree of excellence which their property, and life, and rights. showed a long practice of it among the Chinese. The silkworm itself was unsons from being placed on the judicial known except to the inhabitants of the bench, they provided that each judge-Celestial Empire. Aristotle and Pliny had obtained tolerably accurate accounts both courts, and report on them, in of it. Pamphilia, a native of Cos, one order to satisfy the court, consisting of the rest of the judges, that he was ago, was in the habit of unweaving imunster of law, common and civil. Latterly, of course, this had dwindled down to a formality. But the original design was admirable, and, neted upon on various occasions, prevented improper and ignorant men from being sworn in were greatly prized.

na judges. In this, could we read it In the reign of Augustus, the article aright, there is an example and losson for us. Means should be devised to prevent incompetent persons entering into office. Such has been done in the but the thinner manufacture of Cos was very little, had the ceremonies been ment horse power, and what satisfactory past, and such may be in the future.

signed his office of a Senator of the and music filled their mighty aisles and tants to Palermo, who introduced the College of Justice in Scotland, (the arches, and organs and human voices to-silk manufacture into Sicily, from whence Lords Ordinary in the lower or Outer to 1865 ever written that does not give a in 1554, a sumptuary law was made House. The appointments to all the great place to that wild, uncouth "John "that whosoever shall wear s.lk in or judgeships are for life, and each judge assumes a particular title on his pro-

Lords Ordinary, in their crimson and have perukes, and flame of devotion died out, they left quality of the manufacture, continued were old enough to understand, their delicate ankles, or dropping them so low its terrible dangers. the singing to the choir, and then, in to improve, so that now silken textures mother spents years of weary watching as to draggle them in the brook, nobedy rose. Then the president asked whether damasks from Damascus; dimity from these preparations; the light excites the carried all his days a conscience that has the missive should be read, and his col- Demietta; cordovan from Cardova; surface to phosphorescence wherever it smitten him by day and by night for There is the grand story of the Counters long continue to be an institution in the leagues having bowed their assent, the calico from Calicut, and muslin from falls; the shadows of the image produce wrongs committed in his boyhood against of Nithsdale, who carried off her hus-

For the Sandey Appeal | MA I HERE, VIEILLE MERE. BY MRS. J. E. BRANDER.

Mother, thy feet are night The steps that lead to Death's chillriver side; Thou simest hear'st the sweet yet stariling cry. Of the Lamb's voice and the Bride, Saying nuto thee "Come! eyoud the bound of Life or Death or Time, ny Father hath prepared for thee a home Within a heavenly clime. "There shall be no night there; hou shall behold His face f revermore; od's glory shall be averywhere Upon that shining shore!

ill reacheth to thee with entreating hands, Protecting thee, besetching God above That even in earthly lands, Thou yet might't dwell for years, lessing the nearts that cannot give thee upey shrink with anguish and with bitter tears

From Surrow's wo-mwood cap. Because thou art so dearcause no truer woman, ever blest The home by thre possess'd.

Thou rever eared'st to elsim inguithut a true and gentlo woman's meed; lechewing (qua) right or power or fame As a perclisious creed. And enaving but to be he tander mother and the faithful wife-, sweet to such a woman pure as tuce.

To owe the spring of life! Mother, I am afar, And yet I long to hiss thy winkled hands; I nightly watch some bright and eastern star That shines where thy home stands.

And murmur to it low. omes | frit spell may to thy sources s tow Tay absent child each night.

THE ENGLISH DEAD OF 1968. Foreign necrology for 1868 is even icher than that of the Western World of the Islands of the Grecian Archipel- It embraces sovereigns, statesmen, scholars, soldiers, seamen, sons el ported silken fabries, for the purpose of spinning and weaving them anew into lighter fabries, such as gauzes. Her negsons who had seen almost three genpersons who had seen almost three gen- by a long term in Newgate. Some times ractice was afterwards adopted by the erations pass away. Of eminent Eng-driven from the obvious world by its inladies of Rome, where silken materials lishmen, who have departed, perhaps tolerable rascality, we take refuge for a Lord Brougham was the most remarkable, dying, in his 90th year, at Cannes. | we can do justice on the Anakim, whose pretty was but little known; and in the reign He sleeps in French earth, and is said to strength and multitude defy us here. worn only by ladies of the highest rank, point about which he would have cared there a steam-cowhide of a cavalry regimore general during the hot season, hearsed and rehearsed before him. Other fingellation we preside over, in that Men were forbidden to wear silk fabrics, Englishmen in the list: The Earl of fancied place of retribution. But somebut a mixed material of an inferior Cardigan, who died, at 71, from a fall in times we have pictured to ourselves what quality was worn by both sexes. The hunting, after having survived the would appear in some rich New England actress in her day, but we believe she goods!

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

bout those Petticoats and other Disquises.

flistoric Precedent. for Female Disguise.

From the Episcopul Methodist, of Baltimore. Some weeks ago we saw in the Philathat in rummaging a box in the Treasury Department, discovery had been made of of lying old clothes. the articles of feminine apparel taken from the person of Jefferson Davis at the time of his capture; and that the wife of a well-known ecclesinstical func tionary had asked for the clothes for the ourpose of exhibiting them at a fair held in Philadelphia, to raise money for a monument to Mr. Lincoln; upon which monument a place is to be consecrated to With Tru h, and Love, and Hop.'s beatgnant the statute of the ecclesiastical functionary aforesaid and husband of the woman who wanted to borrow the old elothes, to be used for the benefit of his reputation. some quiet people who fancy they attain tradiction of this story, but have seen of it is true as relates to the professed iscovery and the elemosynary application by the devoted wife who seems to ainister to her husband's glory with a leliency and eleverness paralleled only in Borrow's Gypsey stories of the devotion of Romis to their Roes.

As to the finding of female apparel in chests sent from the South, we do not doubt it for a moment. We have unbounded readiness to believe in any disoveries of things portable that may be said to be found in receptacles of South-ern plunder. The educated mind of New England exhibited a disciplined skill in burglary and a trained eleverness in larceny, which could not have been excelled by the Highlandors who stripped Mr. Andrew Fairservice, had their natural turn for robbery been perfected little rest, in those realms of fancy where of many comforts, if the need were, that her dear boys might not want a pleasure high hopes and the fruitlessness of heelerk of the court read aloud the appointment of "the learned George Dundas" to the vacant elies of this sand the opin to the light not ter earned elies of this sand out in the macro elies of the vacant elies of this sand the opin to the light not ter elient elies that the thing elient elien for a statue should exhibit any one of those relies in order to traffic in ribaldry. she would certainly be disappointed. Among the "Noble deeds of Women," we have not read of an effort to heap in sult on the fallen for the purpose of gain, and make a pecuniary speculation in the brutality of a mob, by selling them a look at a supposed relie of the misery of a man and the love of his wife. But the women who have done noble deeds have delphia Bulletin, a story to the effect not been the wives of men who fished for pennies for a monument with a bait completely covered with lofty whitewashed brick sheds, cool and airy. through which you may take a delighttul stroll, inhaling fragrant odors, and surrounded by a wealth of color that would exhaust an artist's palette. From The first yown of her spouse is, no loubt, a severe trial to the vanity of the the beams and rafters above you hang wide. There are few girls who have not long strings of onions, their glittering ers in strictly marked time, and is descoats of bright reddish brown-festoons built pretty eastles in Spain of a felicity uninterrupted by boredom or butchers of scarlet and emerald pepper-podsbills, and there are, without question, huge coca-nuts in their rhinocerontic outer shells-gourds of all shapes and We have waited patiently for a con- to it. The country parsonage, for in- hues-mighty encumbers and choice stance, often contains two beings who melons in nets, hong up to ripen. To none. We infer, therefore, that so much smile benignly on such other for long the right and left of your path are the tracts of years, whose mornings and stalls, small inclosures like cattle-pens; noons and nights are passed in one an | in the center of each squats its propriether's society, and who reach three- tor, hedged in on all sides by piles of core and ten without the slightest sus- fruit. Great bags of chesnuts are poured ision of weariness or a desire for a out prodigally at his feet; round his wider circle of sympathy. In other head are clustered enormous bunches of of the room not only precludes you from words, there are veschibles to whom it graces, handing from the woodwork of vords, there are vegetables to whom it grapes, hanging from the woodwork of men to whom it is natural to live. And compass him round about; deep baskets, ife if it means anything means variety overflowing with pomegranates tinted overflowing with pomegranates tinted s natural to vegetate, as there are wo- his stall; pyramids of muskmelons enand change. It is add to think how on like the falling leaf, yellow and rosy apthat one yawn hangs the freedom of ples, pimento and delicate milk-white to her empty is not only a cruel slight to rears to come. It is the bugle that onions form the front bulwark of his her talent, but a grievous offence, as her sings trace. It is a tacit convention stronghold; and close behind him plied searn of the action, and twit her which leaves the husband his club and shielded by his body from the raids of the leaves the husband his club and shielded by his body from the raids of with it till has been black. the wife her independence. No people can be more touchingly attentive to each other's wants. The spouse finds his billed with soft hay, into which he breakfast on the table, his Times cut for him, his letters arranged his content and two her with first of mortification. Bendons are allowable, but shabby.

SEMI-DETACHED WIVES.

The Dear Creatures Considered.

After the heat: closeness and wild are him, his letters arranged, his evercoat coins you give him in exchange for his brushed in the hall, the time-table open tempting commodities. A clumsy pair at the proper page. The one return of scales dangles hard by, in which he asked for is that of absence for the day | weighs the ponderous melons and gleamhusband agrees with the ing onions—the smaller fruit are sold by ar before him that "a man number, these and the peppers by weight. on something to do," that loit. Of all the splendid objects displayed in of Tiberius, silk from the East was have had a very shabby funeral—a we will not tell how we have erected ering at home is hardly a monty thing, his store, the only ones that fulfill their ways only by ladies of the highest rank association blunts the edge outward promise are the pomegranates, that he "has a wife to onions and chesnuts; the rest are fair and a world to win for outside and disappointment within. well never forgive herself, but kiss of the autumn sun, are little but the handsomest square in Europe (Plata man, we repeat, takes his skin and stones, the former being about de la Libertad) to the cozy, snug Fords In the cld Hebrew worship it is evident this service of song had a great cost, as well as difficulty of importing silk to Rome, exused Marcus place. The Psalms, as we find them in our Bible, open into the tender, or terbile, or sorrowful, or glorious experible, or sorrowful, or glorious of their authors and singers, and increased of their authors and singers, and increased for the positive of the protty little great cost, as well as difficulty of importing silk to Rome, exused Marcus Simpson, who succeeded Lord Ragland in command of the British army in the seed ambassadors to China to establish commercial relations with that people but the positive of the protty little great cost, as well as difficulty of importing silk to Rome, exused Marcus Simpson, who succeeded Lord Ragland in command of the British army in the send ambassadors to China to establish commercial relations with that people but the positive of the protty little great cost, as well as difficulty of importing silk to Rome, exused Marcus Simpson, who succeeded Lord Ragland in command of the British army in the send ambassadors to China to establish the deficitly of the protty little great cost, as well as difficulty of importing silk to Rome, exused Marcus Simpson, who succeeded Lord Ragland in command of the British army in the one succeeded Lord Ragland in command of the British army in the send ambassadors to China to establish the consciousness and locomotion. To the world she sighs gently for the with delicate yellow, are as hard and unformed to the protty little great cost, as well as difficulty of importing silk to Rome, caused Marcus Simpson, who succeeded Lord Ragland in command of the British army in the send ambassadors to China to establish the consciousness and locomotion. To the world she sight as the king and the protty little and town the continuation. The protty little great cost, as the beautiful protect leaves the pretty little as thick and tough as a kist glove. These name and her freedom. Not prodigious melons, dark green, turned up sail your slumbering body, and even the in their innes foreer to be add and the surface a tilter given is mentioned in Bank and the state of Bank and it is also of the proxiquities of the Emperor Ellect their barts. The Engaglists of the Emperor Ellect their barts. The Engaglists will be a fine of the proxiquities of the Emperor Ellect their barts. The Engage of the Emperor Ellect their barts at the opening of the sort wing friends, how they stage a hyun together, and then want to the fores, and ast with the sort wing fine and then want to the fores, and ast with the sort wing friends, how they stage a hyun together, and then want to the Mount of Olives. So they make that life open and each with the sort wing fine and then want to the Mount of Olives, and then want to the Mount of Olives, and the state of the mount of the Mount of Olives, and the state of the mount of the Mount of Olives, and the state of the mount of the Mount of Olives, and the state of the mount of the Mount of the Mount of Olives, and the state of the Mount of Olives, and the Mount crawl away southward while its delighted more pleasure in her drawing room, comestibles they are naught. Those there designated a Lord of Session) in Scotland. Mr. John Marshall, commonly called Lord Corrrichill, by virtue of being a Scottish judge, lately respond to the designated a Scottish judge, lately respond to the Supreme Country and the success of the late Lord depth and breadth of New of being a Scottish judge, lately respond to the Countess of Harman and the Countess of Sutherland the Countess o Boston, and eister of the late Lord Lyndhurst,) and the Countess of HarLyndhurst,) and the Countess of Harrington, formerly Miss. Foote, a great actress in her day, but we believe she goods!

I remier. He is used to his quiet evening at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing at his club, to his cigar and his piing absolutely insufferable to his his wife, swathed in a handkerchief brown with country. supremest of the Sapreme Court,) and Mr. George Dandas, sheriff of Selkirk, was appointed to succeed him. The manner of his admission is so peculiar and yet so instructive, in its principle that we may as well describe it here.

The Court of Session, sitting in Edin, consists of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as its principle. The Court of Session, sitting in Edin burge, consists of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as the principle of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, generally known as a set of Senators of the Court of Justice, and the skept the she reduced in the search of Senators of the Court of Senators of the Court of Justice, and the skept the she say in the cauches and Milan beened of female garments were found in the skept to fine shake the success of Senators of the Court of Senators of the Court of Senators of the Court of Senators of First Division," and the Lords Ordinary, sitting in the Outer House. This court was established by James V, in May, 1532. There now are thirteen Lords of Session, namely: the Lord Session, namely: the Lord Justice General, the Lord President, after prayer, of its agony Justice General, the Lord President, after prayer, of its agony sitting for the and eleven other judges, of ordinary, four of whom must shifted by the manufacture obtained consist delly in the Outer House, the fifth who took their parts in the great chards of the same and women shifted by the same printed ones belonging to see the lord of the common that the common has the consumation has provery four beggars, Rothschild or Erands to a understant of the times of deep spirition and how in all the times of deep spirition has provery four beggars, Rothschild or Erands to a understant of the times of deep spirition has provery four beggars, Rothschild or Erands to a understant of the times of deep spirition has provery four beggars, Rothschild or Erands to a understant that the about one defender, and that the abundance of the pour manufacture of the more conscientions regare particular that become of the pour manufacture of the more conscientions regare particular and bow in all the times of deep spirition has provery four beggars, Rothschild or Erands to a understant that the about one defender, and that the abundance of the pour manufacture of the more conscientions regare particular and the times of deep spirition has provery four beggars, Rothschild or Erands to the times of deep spirition and the time overy four beggars, Rothschild or Erands to the time overy four beggars, Rothschild or Erands to the time overy four beggars, Rothschild or Erands to the time overy four beggars, Rothschild or Erands to the time of the time overy four begars, and the perfect particular and the time Accordingly, as vacancies occur in the College of Justice, by death or resignation, the vacancy is filled up from the vacancy Any of You.

Lest our readers should think that we are getting again into the history of the Jews, we leave the old clothes, with the midst of their sport the rain began to fall. Frank O Donnell stopped and assumes a particular title on his pro-motion. Thus, John Marshall took the moulon. Thus, John Marshall took the name of Lord Corriebill from a landed of any music ever heard from the court of the c and to witness her marvelous evolutions and all. A new variety of Grecian —Geo. Sands is writing a new novel to be remembered, and often repeated by us.

Grecian —Geo. Sands is writing a new novel to be remembered, and often repeated by us.

Grecian —Geo. Sands is writing a new novel to be remembered, and often repeated by us.

Grecian —Geo. Sands is writing a new novel to be remembered, and often repeated by us.

SPAIN. Street Sketches in Sevill -- Andalusian Minstrelsy and Dancing.

atervals, when seguidillas are being performed, mews forth a number of impromptu stanzas with inconceivable shriliness. Imagine, if you can an ap-orous tom cat cularged to the size of a bullock, with voice proportionate squealville Correspondence of London Tolegraph. ing forth his loving plaint of passionste One of the sights of Seville is the olicitation on the tiles, and you will ruit market of the Incarnation. It is form a vivid notion of an Andalusian n oblong square, covering more ground instrel chanting a seguidilla. But the han Convent Garden, and with the exsuing! Shade of David! Not the eption of one broad stone thoroughfare. Almohs of Egypt dance with such voividing it into two halves, and an open luptuous vivacity, such panther-like flexpaved way running right around it, is ility of motion. The jaleo, for instance, is a performance in which the budy is kept perfectly erect from the unist upward, only the hips and lower limbs being rythmically convulsed into strange and significant contortions. This dance is accompanied by the clapping of hands, contributed by all the by-standperately exhausting to the dancer. Bb. leros, fandanges and oles you have seen plenty of in London, but, I suspect. never executed as they are in this fromsy third floor of the Calle Tarifa. After the first general performance each girl (and some of them are extremely goodlooking) plucks her handkerchief from under spangled bodice, and throws it to the gentleman whom she fancies to be most vividly impressed by her grace, rejecting this mark of favor, but enjoins citement experienced in the Recreo, how delicious to stroll home through the trums his instrument pitilessly, but it shostly streets of Seville, lighted up by a moon so brilliant that the uses of the serenos' lanterns are limited to farnishing you with a light for your eiger. We cross the orange-bedeeked Pince of the Duke, by the tottering Convent of San Miguel, along the narrow Sierpes, half flooded in pellucid light, half wrapt in the blackest of shadows; and so, through ings from disgracing so respectable a house by tricks upon travellers.

A Noinbis Bussian, and what jaleo performed by a celebrated Gitana, Romanoff, which was afterwards changed